The 1943

PUBLISHED ANNUALLY BY THE SENIOR CLASS OF

Intermont

IRGINIA INTERMONT COLLEGE, BRISTOL, VIRGINIA

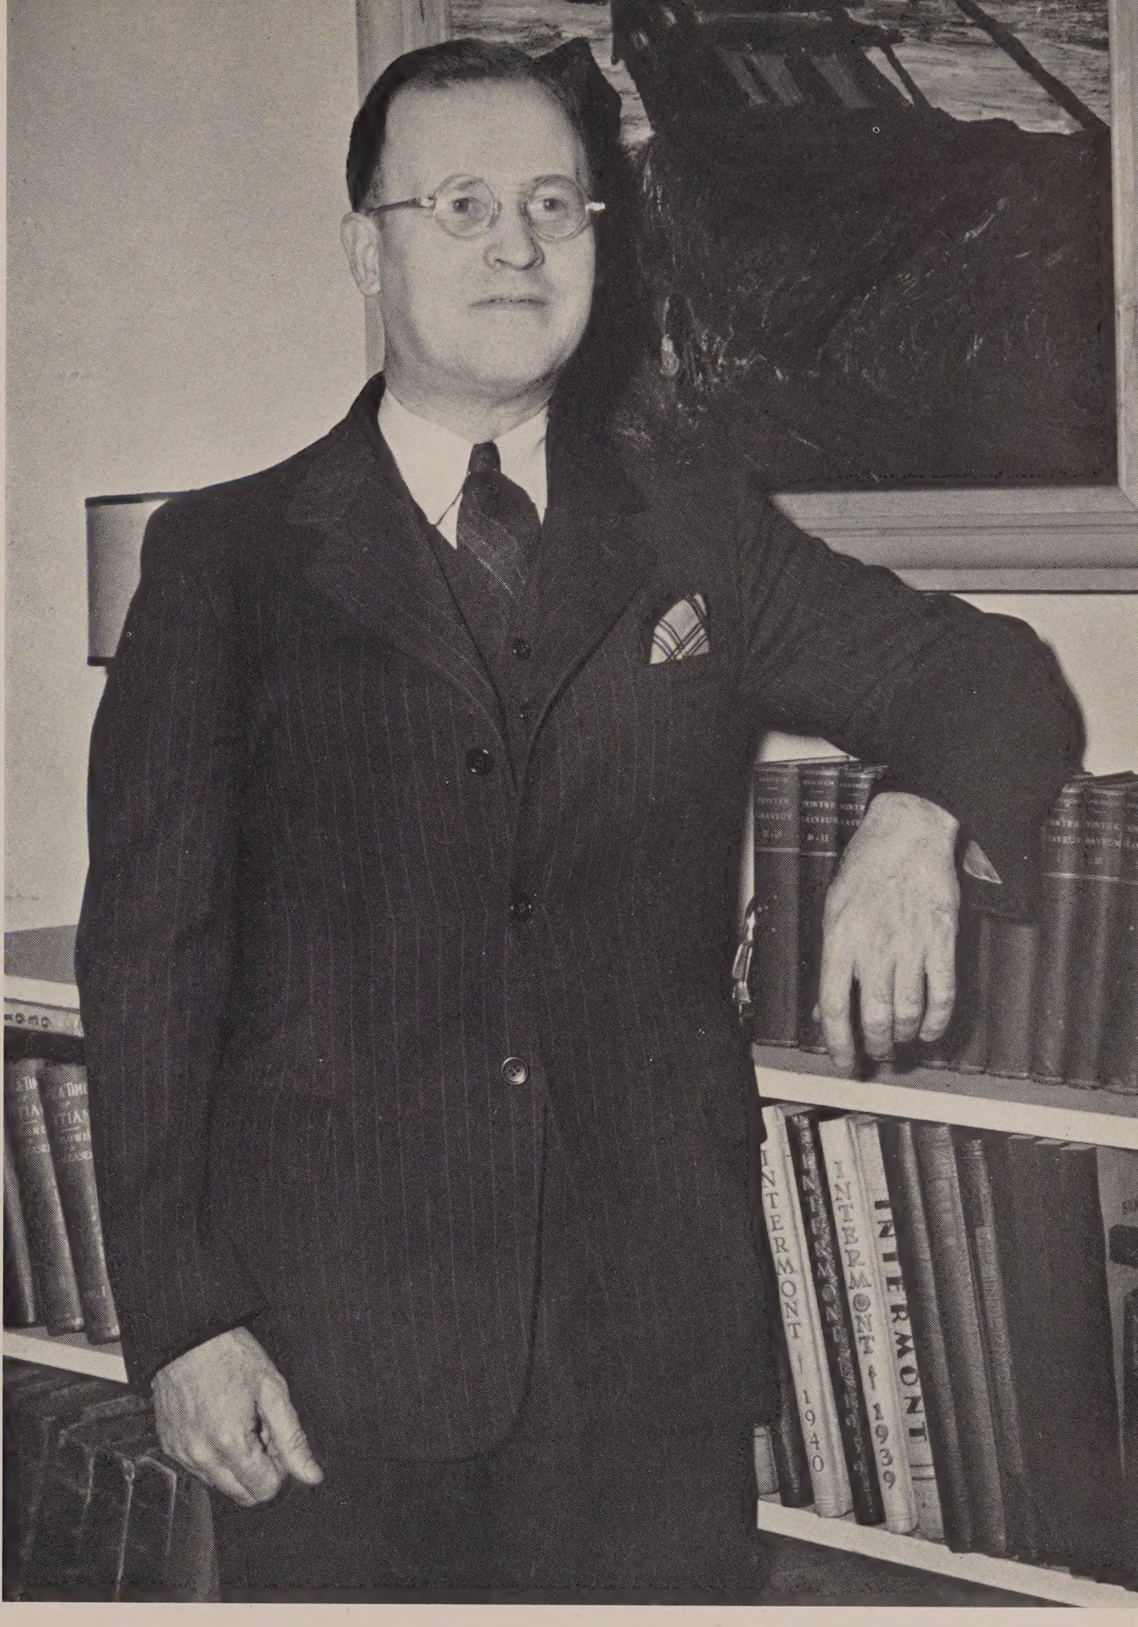
We Pay Tribute To . . .

C. ERNEST COOKE

Tolerance, understanding, and a will to serve have succeeded in placing this cosmopolitan gentleman in the heart of every V. I. girl.

Honor is justly bestowed by the Senior Class on C. Ernest Cooke, who, through his cultural appreciation, has furthered the aspirations of many, and inspired respect from all. A talented connoisseur of the arts, philosopher, humorist, critic, and, above all, an individualist—to this outstanding personality we dedicate the INTERMONT of 1943.

DEDICA



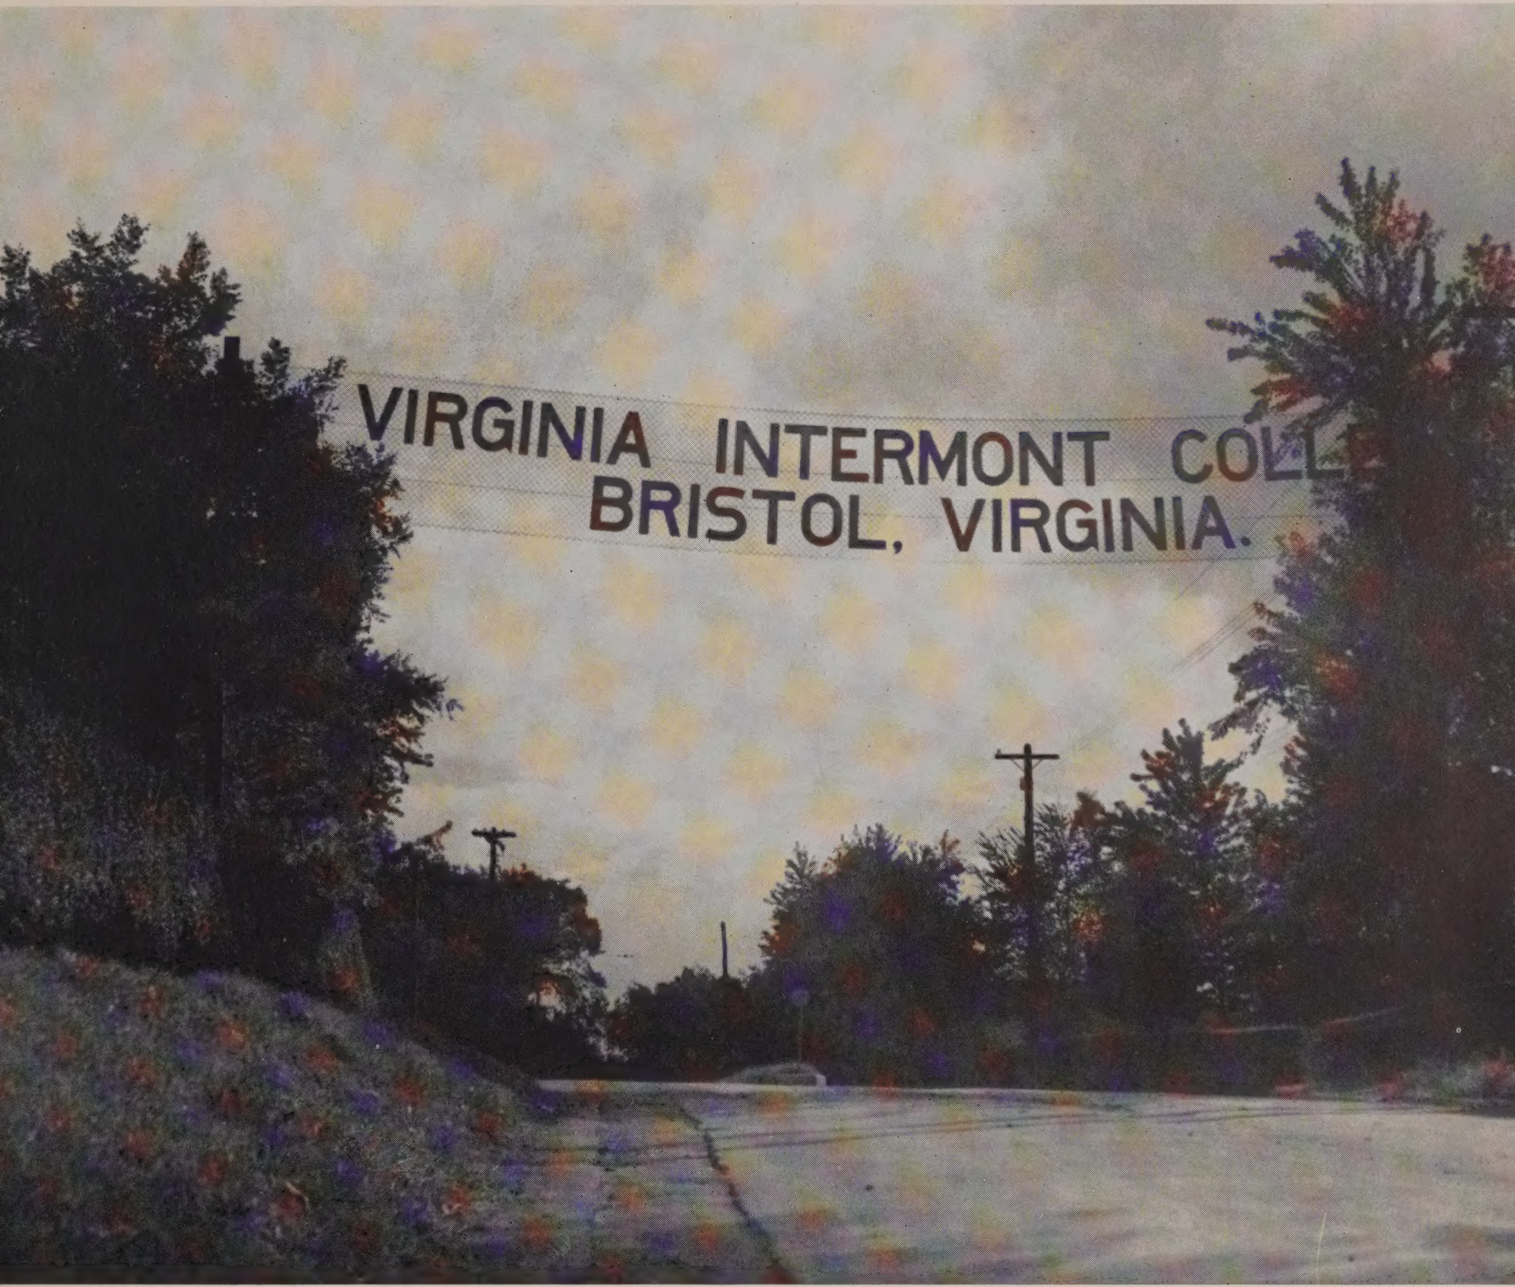
C. ERNEST COOKE

TION ~ ~ ~ ~ ~

WE ARE STUDENTS ALL OF V. I. C. . . .

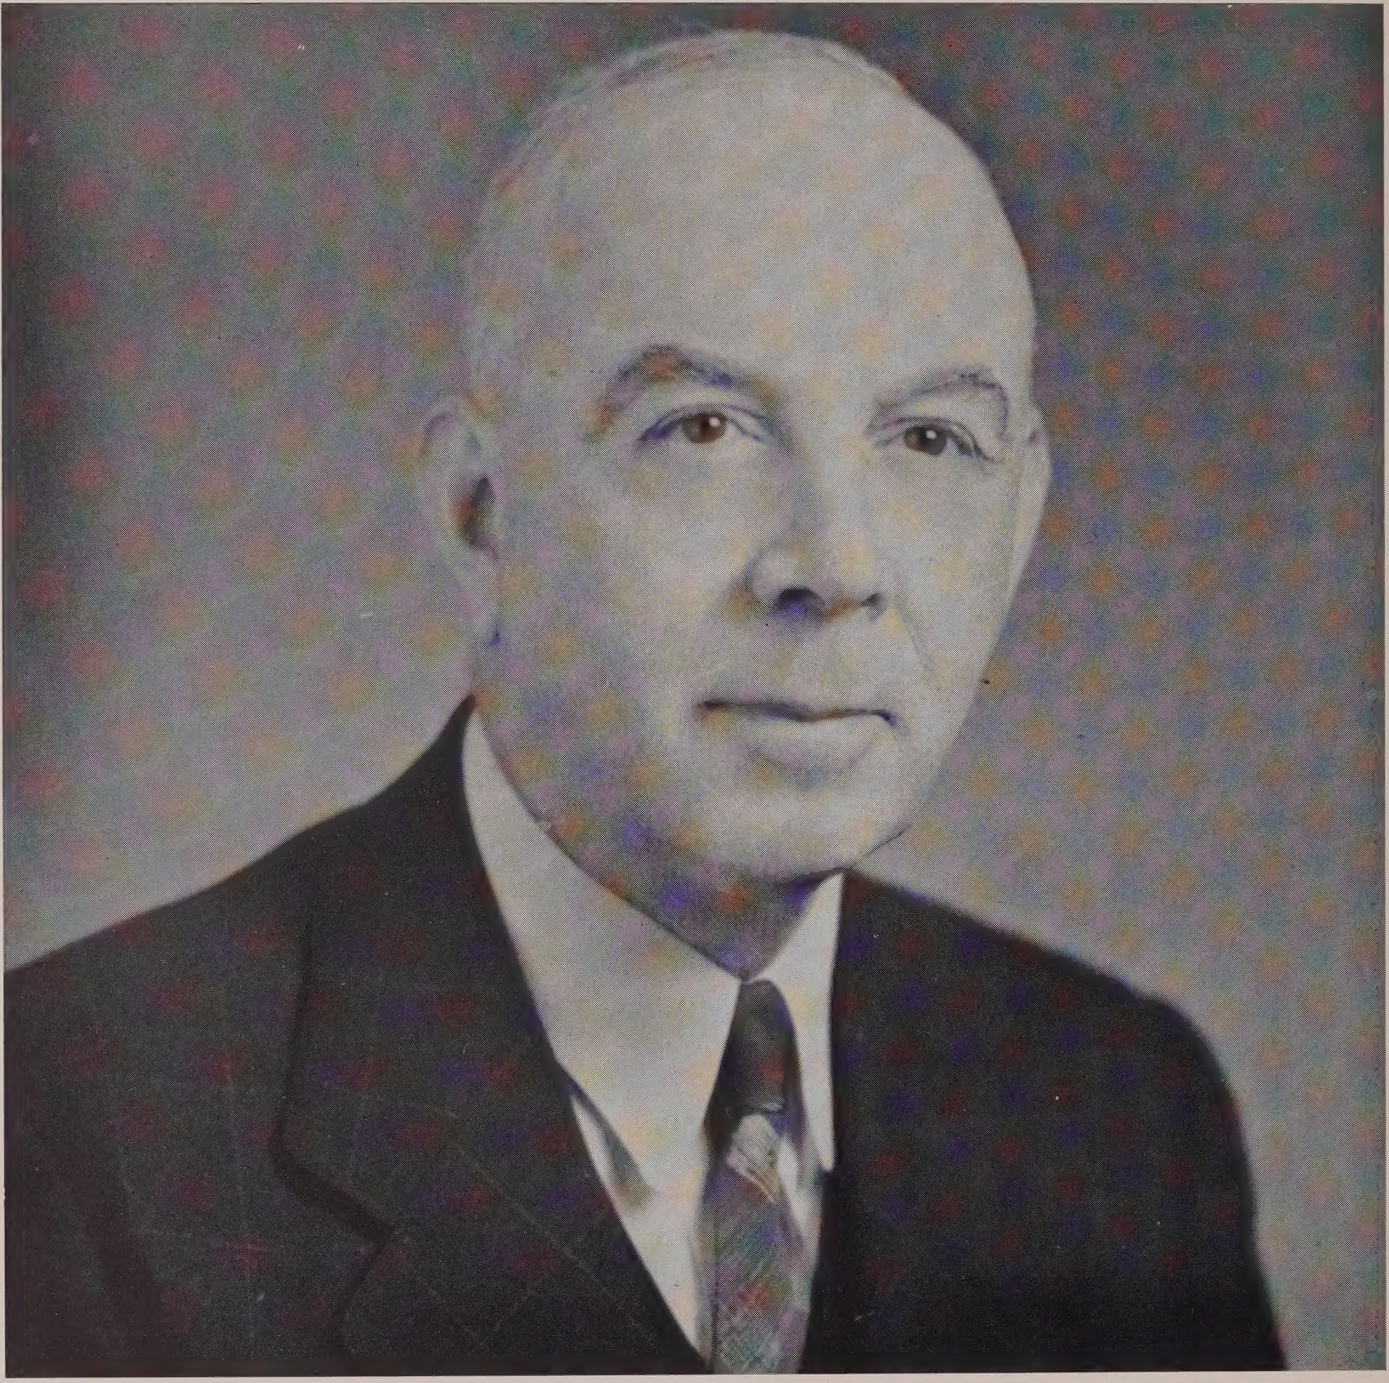
Yes, and nurses, WAACS, WAVES, homemakers, citizens all of U. S. A. We who are destined to become the creators of our future world need desperately the knowledge and courage Intermont has given us. With these years marked by tragedy, trials, and triumphs as an inspiring and ineffaceable memory, we shall dedicate with gratitude and wisdom what we have gained here to answer victoriously the Herculean challenge which is our heritage.

The Happy Memories of our



Yesterdays at Intermont

A MESSAGE FROM



Dr. H. G. Noffsinger

Intermont will soon close her fifty-ninth year, and the thirtieth under the present administration. It is easy to praise the students each year and to say that each group is superior to those of any former year. However risky comparisons may be, it can truthfully be stated that no student body within the long history of the school has ever surpassed the present one. That is true in many respects: in good work done in studies, in conduct, in wholesome extra-curricular activities, in seriousness of purpose, and in loyalty to the highest ideals of the institution.

The college is in the most prosperous condition of its existence. The physical plant is modern and kept in good repair, the endowment has now reached three hundred thousand dollars, all income-producing.

The outlook is as bright as the future of our country, to which the college has dedicated its utmost resources.

Students of Intermont, we are grateful to you for your contribution to the splendid reputation Intermont bears. We are proud of you and feel that you can be proud of your Alma Mater.

Cordially yours,
H. G. NOFFSINGER, President

H. G. Noffsinger, Jr.
Business Manager

Miss Marguerite Pflug, Dean of Faculty

Mrs. Grace Seay, Dean of Women

To the administration and faculty of V. I. we owe a debt of thanks for innumerable services rendered us. Unselfish, diligent, loyal, and understanding, they have cooperated with one another each step of the way, thus succeeding in giving us the guidance necessary for the best possible education, both literary and cultural.

Mr. Roy C. Brown, Vice-President

SENIORS

The realization that we are rapidly approaching the end of another chapter in our lives is now vividly, but sadly unfolding, page by page. The inspirations and ideals we have gained from V. I., her faculty, and from one another are printed indelibly in our hearts.

Naturally, we think the edition of '43 at Virginia Intermont is the best ever, and there are many characters who have made such a profound impression that we are truly proud to present them.

As we learn more about Carrie Trader, our gratitude for her capable leadership of our class increases. She is well-supported by our best-all-'round, "Snappy" McNiel, whose life of service and love for others has been an example we'll never forget. Our talented, vivacious secretary, Betty Bane, and refreshing, industrious Betty Isaacs, treasurer, might be called the comedians of our group.

Our May Queen, Ann Follansbee, is as much a busy bee as a lovely lady. Wouldn't we love to have her picture painted by Shirley Poston, the gal with a future?

My! Captain "Whit" Parish really has an eye for that basket! She is ably supported by Barbara Harrison, Norma Roberts, Doris Batman, Bernice McDowell, Boots DeBusk, and Marian Morgan. Our cheer leaders, Waite, Follansbee, Algee, and McNiel gave a "Hooray, hooray, on the beam," and got as hep as our own senior team.

We can just see Betty Stevens and Barbara Wentz jitter-buggin' that Carolina way.

Charming Bunny Flowers will be remembered for her friendliness and animation.

"Freddie" von Dahm will always be welcomed eagerly, for everyone admires anyone who possesses such qualities as hers.

Persuasive Dan Cupid captured many of our seniors—Marty Rigell, June Blevins, Helen Fox, Marion Boatright, Sue Allen Paup, Odette Holder, and Babs Heydinger.

We shall continue to boast about our class of '43, and shall love it with an undying fervor.

As Time

SEPTEMBER 9—

"Hail! Hail! The Gang's All Here."

SEPTEMBER 12—

Get-together party—"Juke Box Saturday Night."

SEPTEMBER 25—

Pajama Parties—

" . . . , a Sandwich, and You."

Surprising, the number of friends you can make from the mutual sufferers who haven't mastered the technique of eating an ice cream sandwich without having it drip down the front of their clothes, either!

OCTOBER 3—

Alumni Dance—

"A-men"! Yes, men!

The cry of the wolf (or woolfess), sweaters and skirts, sweet swing, and not a jitterbug in the lot.

OCTOBER 5—

V. I.'s first blackout—

"Two Cigarettes in the Dark," and we do mean dark! My black eye? Well, believe it or not, I really ran into a door!

OCTOBER 7—

Y. W. C. A. Candlelight Service—

"Light a Candle in the Chapel."

OCTOBER 17—

Tip and Run Club Outing—

We ran around singing "Miss You" while our dining room gals were having a well deserved picnic. Oh, well, our supper was "in the bag."

OCTOBER 22—

The Kiwanis Outing—

"The Call of the Wild," the ranch camp, the smell of bar-b-cue and coffee (and coffee without a ball and chain on the second cup, too), the camp fire, the songs —"Ah! Wilderness!!"

OCTOBER 30—

Sullins Horse Show—

"These Things You Left Me." — two blue ribbons (to match my bruises) and special permission to eat my dinner off the mantlepiece in the front parlor.

Goes By

OCTOBER 31—

Carnival—

Step right up, folks. We have everything but a gal in Kalamazoo—Bingo, guess your weight, have your palm read, tell your present and your future (your past withheld, on request). Come one, come all! Have your picture taken, three balls for a dime (get even with him for standing you up), the kissing booth (oh, well, there's a shortage of chocolate anyway!).

NOVEMBER 7—

"La Boheme"—

We thought she'd die any minute, but the malady lingered on, and on, and on, et cetera, and on.

NOVEMBER 13—

Glee Club Service Program—

"There's Something About a Soldier," and a sailor, and a flier, and a marine.

NOVEMBER 19—

Barn Dance—

"Woman needs man" or a reasonably accurate facsimile.

NOVEMBER 26—

"Praise the Lord and Pass the" mashed potatoes. There was turkey, dressing, turkey, peas, turkey, cranberry cause, turkey, pumpkin pie, and—oh, yes, turkey!

DECEMBER 5—

Christmas Dance—

"I'm Dreaming of a . . . . " If Bing Crosby can do it, why can't I?

DECEMBER 7—

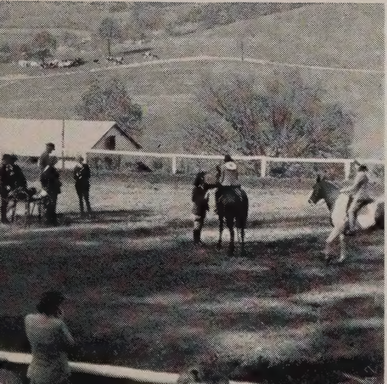
War Stamp Campaign—

"Remember Pearl Harbor" — Our bulletin board looked like the Pacific battlefront covered with ships, planes, and tanks, and, if it's not changing direction too fast, we'd like to see some of those guns go off, "Right in Der Fuehrer's Face!"

DECEMBER 12—

Janie Hammitt Christmas Party—

Dedicated to Santa Claus: "Little Man, You've Had a Busy Day!"



You Must

DECEMBER 15—

Christmas Banquet—
Ah, food, our "Dearly Beloved."

DECEMBER 16—

"T'was the night before Christmas (vacation) and all through (-out) the house (mothers)" were taking aspirin by the dozen!

"The children were (not) tucked in their snug little beds,"
But "visions of" steaks still
"Danced in their heads"—

DECEMBER 17—

"Show Me the Way to Go Home"—

JANUARY 15—

"I'm tired and I wanna go to bed!"

JANUARY 30—

Exam Week—
Student: "I'll Get By"
Teacher: "It Ain't Necessarily So!"

FEBRUARY 1—

"Please, Mr. Cooke, have a little sympathy."
The definition of "pandemonium"? — what broke loose when we saw the test!

FEBRUARY 9-12—

Peanut Week—
Peanut to her shell: "You're a Mystery to Me."

FEBRUARY 15-21—

"Casablanca"—
"A kiss is just a kiss," but "ooooooooooh THAT kiss!"

FEBRUARY 19—

Victory Book Drive—
Gladly donated to any soldier fighting the Japs; one copy of "How to Win Friends by Annihilating People!"

MARCH 13—

Junior-Senior Game—
Well, that time it was the senior team, and not junior who "dood it," but who could forget the "Little Old Ladies" who played the senior cheering section and the grand spirit shown on both sides?

Remember This

MARCH 25—

Mrs. Kelly's Dance Recital—

"Star Spangled Rhythm"

APRIL 3—

Annual Dance—

White, but not Christmas.

APRIL 10—

Song Contest for the Spirit of V. I.

"Sing, Sing, Sing" (Sing-Sing?)

MAY 3—

Junior-Senior Banquet—

Passport to a bunch of wonderful "memories."

MAY 8—

Final Dances—

"Tea (dance) for Two", "Take Me out to the" restaurant, and then, "Waltz Me Around Again, Willie."

MAY 27—

Torchlight Procession—

Juniors: "To you . . . we throw the torch,
Be yours to hold it high."

MAY 28—

May Day—

The "Queen for a Day" and her court holding sway over the "Empress Waltz"—

MAY 30—

Last Vesper Service—

"When You Come to the End of a Perfect Day."

MAY 31—

Graduation—

To my diploma: "If You are But a Dream."

Regretfully, "ALOHA"

JUNIOR CLASS

OUTSTANDING JUNIORS

President Charlotte Fortune, who is also an outstanding speech student, has that vital personality which has made her a "super" leader of this class.

The Junior class will never forget those devilish eyes that characterize Donna Morton, secretary of the class.

Marianna Whittaker will always be remembered as one of the most beautiful girls in school, aside from the fact that she is vice-president, too.

England can certainly be as proud as we are of tall, brilliant Annette Warburton who is treasurer of our class. She kept all those Junior dues, remember?

The class would never have been the same without Lee Marsh, that versatile gal who plays the piano, sings beautifully, and has been a top promoter of class spirit.

Beautiful and extremely talented Betty Gennoe who is captain of the Junior basket-ball team, also plays the piano and organ and is secretary of the Student Government.

V. I. will never forget that gal of practical jokes, good jokes, nice jokes, and jokes, period . . . Mary Jo Twitty. Her humorous readings are wonderful.

Ann Cone, a marvelous actress, is the one who made us all cry in "Letters to Lucerne", remember?

Timothy Eatherly, Elizabeth Hickman, Emilie Brownlie, Betty Asbury and Ann Painter all share top honors as being outstanding speech students this year. Every one of them raised V. I.'s tournament rating by at least several notches.

Everyone loves Janie Copenhaver, the day student who could rightfully hold the title of top prankster and clown of the class.

Top honors in horseman (woman?)-ship go to Mary Lee Powell and Fuzzy Rossman, who are both superb riders.

American youth today may not be critically music-minded, but those three gals with the beautiful sopranos . . . Dorothy Wingfield, Peggy Roth, and Margie Lee Anderson . . . can sing to us any 'ole time, can't they, gals?

The casual but caustic little one who keeps us all in stitches by her rumbling laughter and practical jokes is none other than . . . guess who . . . Jean Smith!

Gwen Bateman is the girl with the vivacious personality and quick smile who is a member of the Y. W. A. Council and 1941 American Relay Swimming champion.

"Cushie" Craft and Louise "Shukie" Schuck are two Juniors with outstanding personalities and basket-ball ability. Both of them are among our foremost varsity players.

Betty Henritze is the Junior with a knack for accents and a marvelous dramatic ability for both writing and acting.

That tall, striking redhead is "Bev" Brewer, one of the few old girls! She is a Student Government member and a store house of dry wit and humor.

Quiet in character, but a whiz in the swimming pool is V. I.'s swimming instructor for the second semester, Lillie Jean Snead.

Stylish Jane Fowlkes is fencing instructor and has her own pilot's license.

Last, but certainly not least, we mention Pat Branch as an outstanding personality. Pat's reiterated request for attention (announcements) has been granted because of her ability as a speaker, poet, member of the Glee Club and her interest in all activities.

HIGH SCHOOL

Although this book is dedicated to Mr. C. Ernest Cooke, we feel that Miss Caralie Nelson and the High School deserve at least one page.

Now we would like to bring out some of our personalities.

Miss Nelson, our diminutive High School sponsor, is to be highly commended for helping to bring the High School out of its "rut". Her dynamic personality, constant and cheerful mood, and sense of sportsmanship make us all love her.

We're mighty proud of Emily Smith as our charming Student Government representative.

"Sadie" Moore well-deserves her position as president of the senior class, and we all recognize her infectious laughter.

Petite and collegiate Jeanne Matthews looks like someone who just stepped out of a "band-box."

We all admire the graceful, quiet sophistication of beautiful, blonde "Babs" Hashagan, the "best-all-around" High School student.

It seems that Joyce Hargis always has the latest styles, and she looks smart in them, too.

As for basketball, the High School wants to salute "Sadie" Moore, captain; Betty Joe Lambert, manager; Nenita Wood, "Babs" Hashagan, Martha Conley, Betty Robinson, Margaret Bierbaum, Mary Watson, Valentina Sobalvarro, Charlotte Mueller, D. A. Reed, Jessye Farrell, Dot Warren and Marion Knight.

What would we do without Marge Kistler to make us laugh? Lovable, laughable Kistler always has a witty remark for everything. Ditto, Mary Bannon.

Tall, brunette Barb Grund is greatly admired by all of us for her intellectual and dramatic ability. Barb exemplifies gracefulness and poise. (She and Sadie make a superb dancing couple.)

Blonde, blue-eyed Shirley Palmer makes us all "wanna dance" when she beats out the "boogie" on the piano.

Talented Martha Frances Webb makes us all proud of her with her excellent performances on the stage.

If we all had the intelligence of Laurice Walls, we would certainly deserve the title of "the most intellectual" in the High School.

Likable Ann MacCadden is an excellent dramatics student, and we wish her all the luck in the world in that field.

Pretty Glenna Baird has a naturally sweet soprano voice, and everyone wants her to sing more often. Peggy Patterson has a beautiful voice we like to hear, too.

So far as loveliness is concerned, we can "hold our own" with girls like Betty Haynes, "Babs" Hashagan, Helen Berry, Barb Grund, Margaret Bierbaum, Elsie Molinet, Jeanne Clarke, Jeanne Matthews, Carolyn Van Ness, and Glenna Baird.

Vivacious D. A. Reed is largely responsible for the High School's having the best class spirit at Intermont.

Thanks to Miss Nelson and to all girls in the department, we feel that this is the best High School Intermont has ever had.

Portrait Staff

We, the Intermont staff of 1943, proudly present to you this annual. It is more than just a book; it is your record of your experiences in the past year at V. I. The creation of this annual has not been an easy task, but every member of the staff will feel well paid if, in future years, it will help every Intermonter to relive her college days. This is your book; cherish it. May it always be a pleasant reminder of the charm and spirit, the fun and fellowship, the happy life that is Intermont.

THE CAULDRON

Every girl at Intermont looks forward to those Tuesdays when a new issue of the Cauldron is proudly circulated to each and every one in the school. An earnest endeavor is made by the Staff, assisted by the journalism classes, to bring to you a close-up of the activities at V. I. Through the efforts of this staff, each publication has been an event of great interest and enjoyment to all.

The organization on the campus which sponsors quiet periods of worship and promotes spiritual fellowship is the Baptist Student Union. This, one of our three religious organizations, serves especially the Baptist students, uniting them with the state and Southern associations, to whose assemblies it sends delegates. Any Baptist student who is in school away from home, is automatically a member of this organization which strives to bring the student closer to the church and promote maximum Christianity.

The Y. W. C. A. is a leading organization on the campus, doing both religious and secular work. The organization begins its activities even before school opens, through its "Big Sister" and "Little Sister" plan. Through the year, the "Y" provides entertainment with its traditional pajama parties, Hallowe'en party, carnival, Christmas tea, exam week teas, Peanut Week, Day Students' Night, Mr. Schroetter's recital, fall and spring retreats, and semi-monthly meetings in the chapel. Social service work plays an important part in the year's schedule through financial and personal aid to the Janie Hammit Memorial Home and the Katie Lockett Home. This year the Y. W. C. A. has contributed to the campus war work, being responsible for sending much needed financial aid to students all over the world.

"They that are wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars forever and ever." This is the watchword of our Y. W. A. As one of the leading religious organizations of the campus, the Young Women's Auxiliary carries its full responsibility of spiritual guidance. Because of its success in promoting Christian understanding and development among the faculty and the student body, the Y. W. A. has gained for itself an undisputed position on the V. I. campus.

Membership in Delta Psi Omega is a coveted honor, and is the goal toward which every ambitious student is striving. Intermont's chapter, organized in 1930, has the distinction of being one of the ten chapters to constitute the chapter membership of the national organization.

PHI BETA

The Alpha Beta chapter of Phi Beta Fraternity was formed at Virginia Intermont in May, 1939, and is one of only two junior college chapters in the United States. This organization is a national honorary fraternity for outstanding students in music, speech, and dancing. Intermont is proud of the cultural interest this chapter has developed on its campus.

V. I.'s orchestra was organized six years ago by Miss Claire Ordway, its present conductor. Each year has seen improvement in numbers, equipment, and the quality of performance. Varied kinds of appearances are presented through the academic year, closing with a concert in the spring. Membership this year varies around fifteen.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

No one will ever forget those heavenly odors that drifted out of Hodges Hall. We prophesy that the members of this club will all be successful homemakers, after the teaching and guidance Miss Miller has so efficiently given them. No budget worries! DAY

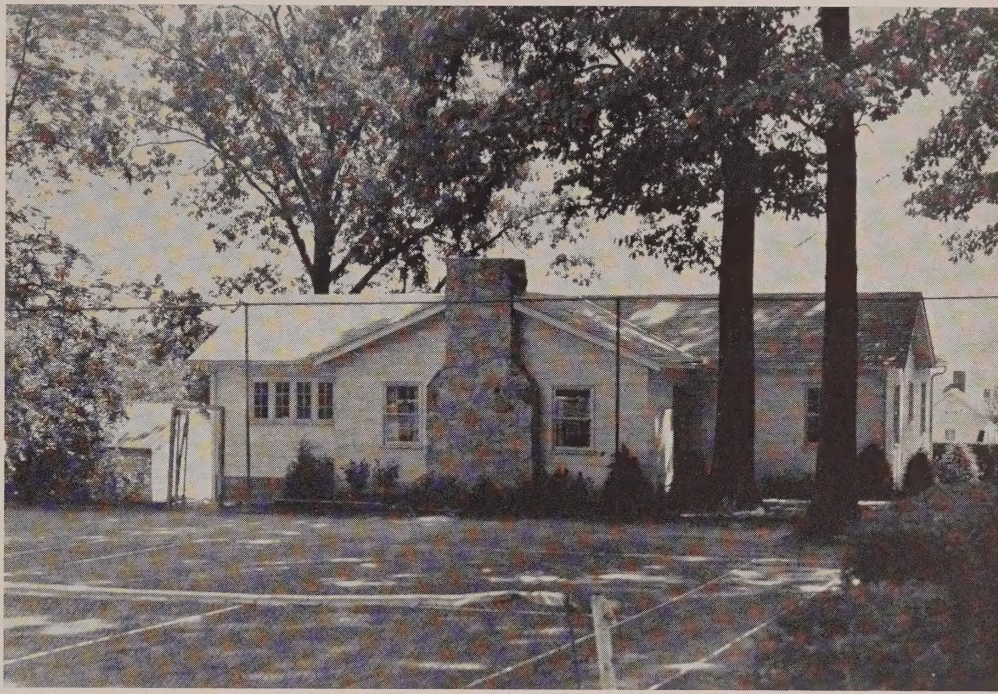
Though having a minority in number, the senior day students have done much to create a stronger bond between the boarding students and the day students. Their participation in regular college activities is whole-hearted and valuable.

These are the girls to whom we owe a vote of thanks. They are an interested and vital part of V. I. life. They've made Bristol more like a second home to us, and without them school wouldn't be the same. Three cheers for the Day Students!



STUDENTS

Strong in number and strong in spirit are our junior members of the Day Students. We hope that next year they can become an even more integral part of the V. I. student body.

SURGICAL DRESSING

As their contribution to the war effort, some V. I. girls gave up their Saturday afternoons to making dressings and rolling bandages. Mrs. Kelly started taking a group of seniors down to the Red Cross center each Saturday at the beginning of the year, but it was after Christmas that the number grew, and that we started hearing about the records our bandage-rollers were making.

The Red Cross First-Aid courses, the occasions of those nightly processions of be-slacked teachers and students, had a large enrollment from V. I.'s practical and war-minded girls. Those of us who were uneducated were mystified by all the talk of tourniquets, shock treatment, etc., but we're proud to know that so many of us were training for any emergency. Congratulations go to these students and teachers who contributed so much to the success of V. I.'s new War Council.

Because of war conditions, the social calendar was necessarily varied from those of previous years, but we can express our gratitude for those dances which were made possible for us. With the help of Mrs. Seay, this committee has done much to increase the success of this year's social calendar.

"The girls with the flashlights" could be the unofficial title of V. I.'s air raid wardens. Every time the sirens blew a warning, these girls were right on the job, looking for lights, listening for noises, and making sure that V. I. rated 100% according to black-out rules. They certainly were real examples that our War Council was cooperating with city and state officials to their utmost ability.

The first chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, the national honor society for junior colleges, was installed at Cottey College in the Midwest. In 1927, sponsored by Miss Marguerite Pflug, our present sponsor, Virginia Intermont had the honor of being the first junior college in Virginia to organize a chapter, and one of the first in the East. Now, chapters are in nearly all junior colleges.

To be eligible for membership in Phi Theta Kappa, a student must be taking a fully literary course and making an average of 90 with no grade below 85.

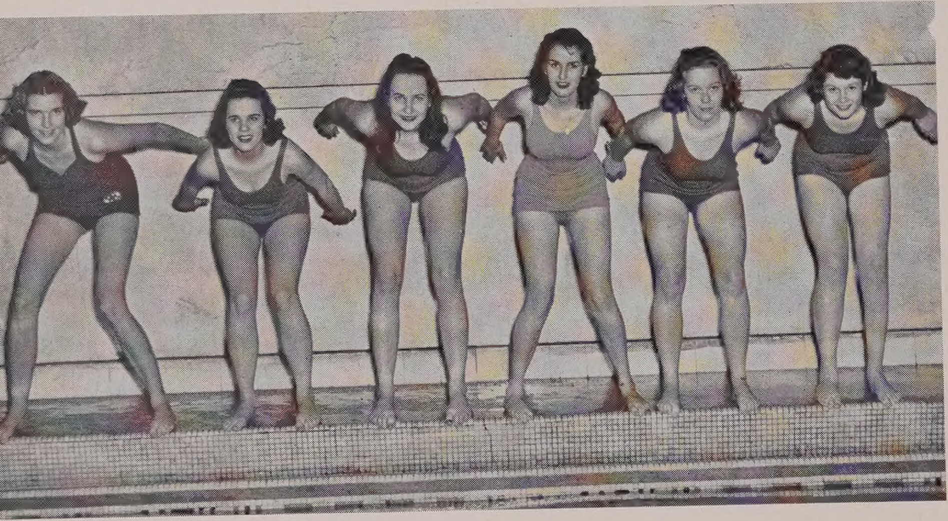
SENIOR TEAM

One does not have to excel in athletics to enjoy the program of sports at V. I. There is a sport for every girl and a girl for every sport. Basket-ball and riding are the most popular sports at Intermont. Swift competition, sportsmanship, and good clean fun aid in making the basket-ball season a time of pleasure. Long rides through the trail, in early fall and spring, and the traditional spring horse show are the highlights of the equitation department's curriculum.

HIGH SCHOOL TEAM



A FIELD FOR FUN

Ranking high among the numerous sports at V. I. are swimming, fencing, calisthenics, tennis, archery, and hockey. A simple program of physical education is put into practice, with accent on the fun involved in creating a healthy body.

What greater thrill could a V. I. girl have than to be chosen to reign as "Queen of the May"? This is one of the most coveted titles of which a senior can dream, and the student body of V. I. certainly showed the finest taste when they elected Ann Follansbee to the throne. Without a doubt Ann possesses regal poise, grace, personality, and beauty. Also exhibiting this same queenliness is Ann's Maid of Honor, Norma Roberts. We give our allegiance to you, "Queen" Ann, and to you, Norma. Long may you reign!
